PERSONAL FACINATION

“How to pursuit purity within a concept”

How to translate conceptional meaning into architecture and what is the key factor to it?

CONCEPT

“MOVING MOUNTAINS”

Show people that then can archieve great things by controlling their mind

The experience of controlling & controlled

STRUCTURE

“complex is not complicated”

The use of just a couple of efficient/simple elements to define a space

EXPERIENCE

Interactions between visitors and pavilion
(controlling & controlled)

Essence of moving mountains

PRODUCTION

“No architecture without production”

Ability of making something complex with simple elements

CONCLUSION

“How to translate conceptional meaning into architecture and what is the key factor to it?”

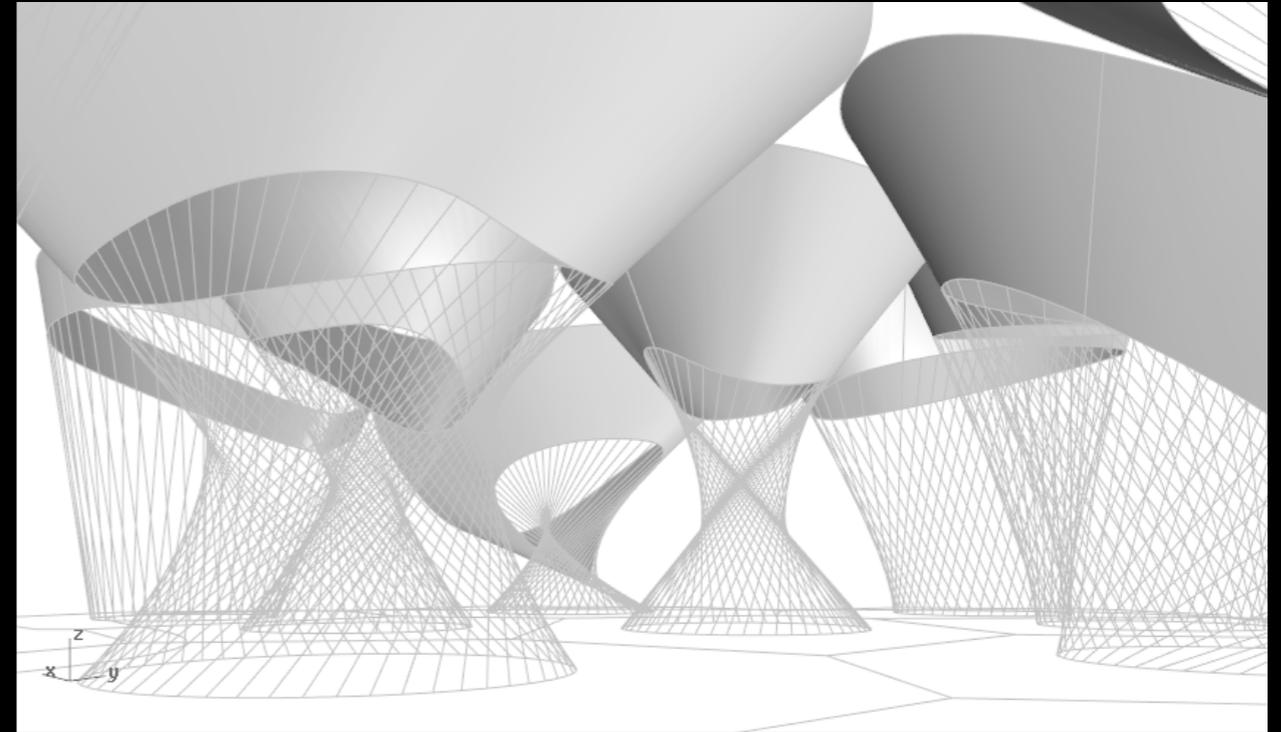

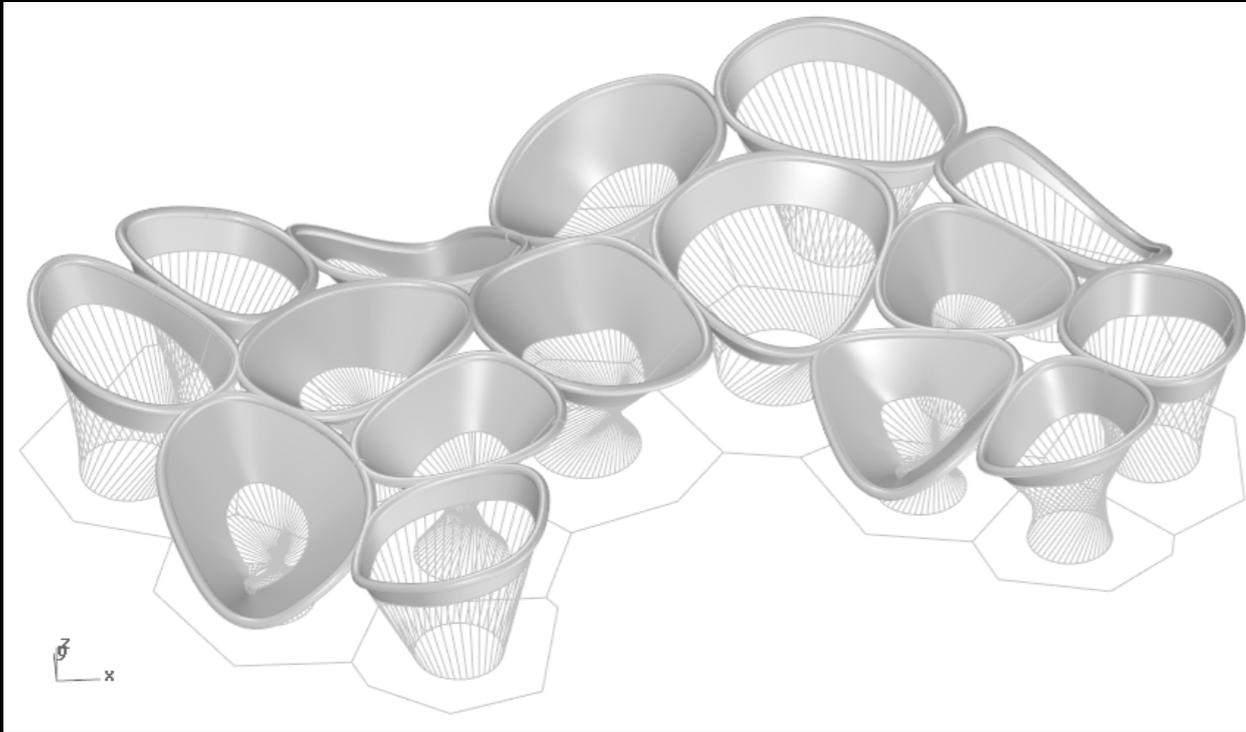

Freedom of thinking.

It gives the concept the opportunity to develop itself in something it want it to be.
